Audio Release Form

You are being asked to allow audio recorded during a research study for additional purposes. Your decision to give your permission is voluntary.

Your decision whether or not to give your permission to use the audio recordings will have no effect on your academic standing. Please ask questions if there is anything you do not understand.

During your participation in the Collective Thought research study, audio (speech) was recorded as research data. You are now being asked to give your permission to use those images for additional purposes.

The audio recorded during the research includes your speech. You may be easily identified by others, especially people who know you or heard you before. The audio recorded during the research will not be labeled with any personal identifying information, such as your name.

The audio will be used only in the following ways:

- For transcriptions of speech
- As stimuli in a follow-up, web-based study (only in short excerpts)
- In educational presentations

Whom should you call with questions about this study?

Questions about the use of the video and photographic images may be directed to:

Professor Thalia Wheatley

Thalia.P.Wheatley@Dartmouth.edu

(603) 646-0769.

If you have questions, concerns, or suggestions about human research at Dartmouth, you may call the Office of the Committee for the Protection of Human Subjects at Dartmouth College (603) 646-3053 during normal business hours.

CONSENT

I am 18 years of age or older and hereby grant the above individual to use my recorded speech for transcriptions, as stimuli in follow-up study and in future presentations. My name will never be associated with any image. I will make no monetary or other claim against Dartmouth College for the use of the audio recording
